Summary

I am a Python/Django Developer with Restful API experience. I have over 2 years of Software development experience in web small/large scale applications.

Apart from backend development, I also have a little experience in ReactJS/Redux. My skills include problem-solving, analysis, debugging, and troubleshooting. I enjoy working on challenging problems and finding innovative solutions. As a self-starter and a quick learner previously I worked independently till 2022, But in 2022 I started working at Beyond Eris Solution in Lahore. There I am working as a Python/Django developer to develop an ERP system.

I have developed several websites using mentioned technologies: Python-Django, Django Rest Framework, Django Requests, RestAPIs, Djoser, Django background task(Huey, Celery), Unit-Testing, Performance testing, MYSQL, PostgreSQL, ReactJs, Redux, Git, BitBucket

Also, I am skilled in business development and have good communication skills as I took my start by freelancing.

Please check my Experience at GURU.com: <https://www.guru.com/freelancers/abdullahzulfiqar> and clients' reviews about my hardworking at: <https://www.guru.com/freelancers/abdullahzulfiqar/reviews>.

Onward I started my journey by joining Industry and now looking forward to a better opportunity.
